Hi Phyllis,

Thank you for your comments.

The applicant is updating the signage to state that the meeting is "TBD". Review is still occurring and we do not have another meeting date set at this point. You'll need to check the City's website for new dates on the project (as indicated on the sign): <http://www.ci.bainbridge-isl.wa.us/434/Hearing-Examiner>

Our Hearing Examiner holds hearings at 10am and 1pm on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of the month. We are exploring the possibility of moving the meeting but are also trying to remain cognizant of those who would prefer the morning/daytime hearing.

Thanks!

Olivia,

The meeting date on the signage in front of the proposed hotel site still says April 25th for the planning commission. Can we not update this sign?

It seems crucial to me that people should have the opportunity to attend the Hearing Examiners meeting. Having it at 10 am makes it impossible for people who work to attend. Since this project affects so many people is there not a way that this meeting could take place in the early evening?
